

COVID-19 (Coronavirus) Information
Updated March 15, 2021

COVID-19 Update: Your benefit payments will continue to be on time.

We're all seeing disruptions due to the COVID-19 pandemic. But be assured: Your federal benefit payments will still be on time.

With direct deposit or your Direct Express® card, your payments are reliable and secure. You can count on them in any situation.

That's why we encourage everyone to receive their benefit payments electronically. You can sign up for either direct deposit by visiting GoDirect.gov or the Direct Express® debit card by calling 1-800-333-1795 (toll-free).

During this pandemic, please take extra care to protect yourself from scammers. Remember that government agencies will never ask for your personal information or ask you to pay them to receive your benefit payments. This blog post and video from the Federal Trade Commission explains how to protect yourself from scammers.

Economic Impact Payments (Stimulus Payments)

For information about Economic Impact Payments, please visit the official IRS Economic Impact Payment Information Center.

NOTE: According to the IRS, the first batch of payments was sent by direct deposit starting March 12. Additional batches of payments will be sent in the coming weeks.

For other common concerns, please check our list of questions on the following pages.

Receiving Your Benefits

Will my benefit payment be delayed by the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic?

No, your benefit payment will not be delayed. All benefit payments, whether received electronically or by check, will continue to be made on time. If you receive your benefit payment electronically, your money will be available immediately on your payment date in your Direct Express® debit card account or the bank account you use for direct deposit. If you receive your benefit payment by check, it is possible you could experience delays in receiving your mail.

What happens to my Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, and other federal benefits during the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic?

All benefit payments will continue to be made on time, on payment date without interruption. Please note that electronic payments are faster, safer and more convenient than a check payment. That's why we encourage everyone to get their benefit payments electronically. You can sign up for either direct deposit by visiting GoDirect.gov or the Direct Express® debit card by calling 1-800-333-1795 (toll-free).

Your Direct Express® Account

How do I check the balance on my Direct Express® card?

You can view your account information at USDirectExpress.com or on the Direct Express® mobile app. Log in to check your balance and view account activity.

You can also obtain account balance information by calling the Direct Express® card toll-free phone number on the back of your card, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The automated system provides your balance and pending deposits. You can also use it to listen to transactions and replace a lost/stolen/damaged card.

Using the automated system is a great way to obtain information without waiting to talk to a customer service representative. Please note that due to the COVID-19 situation, you may experience longer call wait times if you decide to speak with a representative.
